

CV education for someone with a lot of job experience

MA: International Human Rights Law
University of Oxford

BA (Hons) Jurisprudence
University of Oxford

CV education for a recent graduate

MA degree: English literature 2021
Cardiff University
Dissertation: Water imagery in the work of Virginia Woolf

BA degree: English (2:1) 2020
Cardiff University
Dissertation: The role of patriarchy and gender stereotyping in The Chronicles of Narnia
Key modules: Literature in time, literature and place, Banned: Fiction, Sex and the Limits of Decency, Victorian Literature, Women Writers and Language and Gender.

CV education for a student

BA (Hons): History In progress
Leeds University
Modules include: Medieval and Renaissance Europe, Skills and Concepts in International History, Britain and the Industrial Revolution, Black Politics from Emancipation to Obama
Dissertation: The Role of Poets and the place of Poetry in Ancient Greece

4 A-levels English, History, Geography and Sociology
11 GCSEs Including English and History

CV education for someone who didn't finish their degree

University-level studies: Passed modules in Contemporary Political Sociology, Gender, Sexuality and Inequalities, Popular Culture, Media and Society and Nature, Culture and Technology